NEWS RELEASE

“Barnyard Boogie” has been selected as this year’s theme for the 2006 Crook County Fair, July 12-16.

Larry Smith, Chairman of the Crook County Fair said today that “4-H members were invited to participate in the selection process, presenting their top choices to the Fair Board for consideration. “Barnyard Boogie” was submitted by members of the 4-H Prineville Swine Club, led by Rod and Tralina Fulton and Tracy Weston.”

Smith continued indicating that “the Fair Board felt strongly that because of the importance of the annual Fair and the close ties it has with County 4-H members, leaders and volunteers, we asked to have their organization participate in a way that makes a significant contribution to the Fair theme. Hopefully this will establish a tradition for years to come.”

4-H and County Extension officials organized the contest and were pleased with number of entries.

The 102nd annual Fair will be held July 12th through 16th this year. Fair planners and Board members have been busy scheduling music, motor sports and other family entertainment.
