NEWS RELEASE – March 4, 2008

The Crook County Fair Board in partnership with Crook County 4-H and FFA have selected the 2008 Fair theme. “We want Ewe at the Crook County Fair” will be the central theme for this years Fair being held August 6th through 9th.

Over the last few years the Fair board has supported a program where 4-H and FFA members can submit themes for the upcoming Fair. All themes are submitted, a vote is taken by the members and the top three are submitted to the Fair Board for their selection.

“This has been a well received program and reflects annual themes that have a sense of community. So successful that the Fair Board is considering expanding the program to the entire community and announcing the following year’s theme at the conclusion of the annual Fair”, stated Patrick Wood, Fairgrounds Manager.

Over the winter the Fair Board and key volunteers have been meeting and planning the 2008 Fair. Working from the success and momentum of the 2007 Fair where admission was free and attendance doubled from prior years, the volunteer base has tripled. “It’s fun again to volunteer and work at the Fair” states Cheryl Sundet, volunteer coordinator for the 2007 and 2008 Fair.
