NEWS RELEASE – August 25, 2008

The Crook County Fair Board has selected the 2009 Fair Theme less than thirty days after the close of the 2008 Fair. “Open Spaces, Happy Faces” will be the central theme for the 2009 Fair to be held August 5th through 8th, 2009.

During the annual Fair there was a Fair Theme suggestion box at the information booth. All themes that were submitted were reviewed at the August 21st Board meeting, a vote was taken by the members, and the theme was selected.

“Our goal this year was to establish a fair theme for next year at the conclusion of the annual Fair”, stated Patrick Wood, Fairgrounds Manager. “The suggestion box held some very creative themes and the board had an excellent selection from which to choose. Now we can move forward in the planning stages with a central theme. It’s good to have this completed early”, Wood said.”

Over this fall and winter the Fair Board and key volunteers will be meeting and planning the 2009 Fair. “We come right out of our Fair and we need to dive into the planning stages early to insure a successful event for 2009”, states Wood.

The first meeting relating to the 2009 Fair is already being scheduled for late September.
